2. ADVERTISING ACCEPTANCE POLICY

All advertising is subject to approval by ENA. Publisher reserves the right to refuse any advertising at any time. All recruitment advertising must be nondiscriminatory and comply with all applicable laws and regulations. Products, programs, and services must be germane to emergency nursing or related to the health care industry. Advertising for a new product will not be considered by ENA until a license has been obtained from the USDA (United States Department of Agriculture) for biological products, or an FDA (Food and Drug Administration) New Drug Application has become effective. Advertisements must comply with FDA regulations regarding advertising and promotion and conform to labeling that has been cleared by the FDA.

The product and advertiser must be identified within the advertisement. For drugs, the full generic or chemical name of the principal active ingredients must be shown in 6 pt. or larger type. Advertisements shall not be misleading or deceptive. Advertising copy containing statements or inferences that the advertiser cannot substantiate will be rejected.

Product comparisons using trade names will not be accepted without the statement, "Substantiating data based on research is available upon reader request." Quotations or excerpts from a published paper submitted as a statement of evaluation of the product cannot be used by the advertiser or the agency without permission of the author and the publication. Evidence of permissions must accompany copy. ENA does not endorse products, services or companies.

ENA has not evaluated the products and services advertised in the publications. The appearance of advertisements is not a guarantee of those products, services or the companies that manufacture, distribute or promote such products or services. The fact that certain products and services are advertised in ENA publications is not an endorsement of those products and services and does not influence the editorial content.

The word "Advertisement" or "Sponsored Content" will appear at the top of any advertisements that, in the Publisher's opinion, might be confused with editorial pages.

4. PUBLISHER'S AND ADVERTISER'S LIABILITY (FORCE MAJEURE)

In consideration of publication of an advertisement, the advertiser and the agency, jointly and separately, will indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the publication, its officers, agents, and employees against expenses (including legal fees) and losses resulting from the publication of the contents of the advertisement, including without limitation, claims or suits for libel, violation, or right of privacy, copyright infringements, or plagiarism. Advertisers and advertising agencies assume liability for all content of advertisements printed and assume the responsibility for any resulting claims made against the Publisher.

5. CANCELLATIONS AND CHANGES

7. BILLING AND PAYMENT POLICY

Unless otherwise noted, invoices will be issued upon receipt of signed Insertion Order. Net amounts are due 30 days from date of invoice. The Publisher reserves the right to place on credit hold any Advertiser with an invoice more than 60 days past due/more than 90 days from invoice date. Except for those advertisements whose materials deadline has passed, no additional advertising will be run for, nor any additional contracts accepted from, an Advertiser on credit hold.
